To Whom It May Concern:

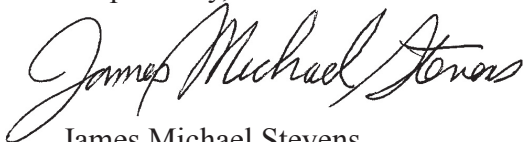

Regarding our song, "Without Love... We Have Nothing," we have granted to Mr. Jang W. Choi of Sunmin Music exclusive right to represent our song in Korea for all purposes including the granting of permission to use, the collecting of all royalties, and the pursuing of infringers who are unwilling to comply with his legal requests.

This is completely supported by myself and the other writer, Joseph M. Martin. Our publishers, GlorySound (Shawnee Press/Music Sales Corporation) and Capri Music (Alfred Music Publishing) have submitted official letters to Mr. Choi giving him full and exclusive authority to act in our behalf.

Be it known that this includes all current uses of "Without Love," all future uses, and every use from the past including the collecting of royalties from the very first copy sold of every past use. No company has had the right to forgive any past uses of "Without Love... We Have Nothing." The rights we are granting to Mr. Choi and Sunmin Music includes, but are not limited to: CDs, tapes, performances, printed editions, ring tones, new arrangements of any kind, drama/TV/motion pictures, radio, mp3 downloads, any digital transmissions, etc...

Mr. Choi has full authority to act on our behalf and we completely stand behind his efforts. We ask that all those who wish to use "Without Love... We Have Nothing" in Korea contact Mr. Choi to receive legal permission to do so.

Respectfully,

James Michael Stevens
D.M.A., M.C.M.
